Foresters Asset Management bolsters its equity team

(Toronto, ON, April 26, 2018) – Foresters Asset Management Inc. (“FAM”) is pleased to announce two additions to FAM’s North American equity team.

Vivian Lo has joined the group as Vice President and Senior Portfolio Manager, Equities. Vivian has over 15 years industry experience and was previously VP and Portfolio Manager for over ten years at LOGiQ Asset Management (formerly Aston Hill). Evan Minsky has joined as Analyst, Public Equities, with 12 years investment experience and was formerly at 1832 Asset Management (Dynamic Funds) in a similar capacity. Both individuals bring a wealth of knowledge and proven investment expertise to FAM. FAM manages over CDN$10 billion in fixed income and equity assets for several leading Canadian financial institutions, as well as managing a number of proprietary mutual Funds.

“We are very excited to have these two seasoned investment professionals join the Foresters FAMily,” said Suzann Pennington, Chief Investment Officer at FAM. “Vivian and Evan are expert stock pickers and have built demonstrable performance track records at their former respective investment firms. Our disciplined approach to analyzing securities and building portfolios, overlaid with our Environmental, Social and Governance process gives us an advantage that will help us to continue to provide enviable investment returns for our investors.”
