

Our cookie policy

This website is owned by Foresters Financial. This cookie policy is part of our enterprise privacy statement.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small files that websites place on the device you are using to browse the site. Cookies are commonly used to record some aspect of your visit to a site, such as choices you have made or preferences you have set during your visit.

How and why we use cookies

We use cookies to give you the best experience when you visit our website. By using cookies, we can make it easier for you to do many things, such as managing your Foresters account, login details or applying for our products and services. Cookies can also allow us to tailor the content of our website so we can show you services or advertisements we think you may be interested in.

Keeping your personal information safe

Our cookies do not store personal information such as your name, address, phone number or email in a format that can be read by others. The cookies we use cannot read or search your computer, smartphone or web-enabled device to obtain information about you or your family, or read any material kept on your hard drive.

We do use a small number of cookies that store encrypted versions of information where you have asked us to, such as the 'Remember me' function that allows us to remember your Account username for subsequent visits. We only retain this information for 3 months and it is encrypted so that only Foresters can read this information. The website that places a cookie owns that cookie. This means only that website and other sites that it has agreed to share information with can read the information stored using a cookie.

Links to sites provided by others

If you follow a link from our website to another website, please be aware that the owner of the other website will have their own privacy and cookie policies for their site. We recommend you read their policies as we are not responsible or liable for what happens at their site.

How to manage and switch off cookies

Your web browser provides settings that allow you to manage or switch off cookies. If you do switch off cookies, remember that you may not be able to use all of the services on our websites.

You can find out more about managing and switching off cookies at the independent website: allaboutcookies.org.

The types of cookies we use on this site:

Strictly necessary cookies

These cookies are essential for our online services and tools to work. They collect or record information that we need to make our site work.

Common uses for this type of cookie include:

- storing information so that shopping baskets can be provided
- storing information for e-billing
- allowing users to log in or access private areas of a site.

These cookies only last for a single browsing session – when you leave our site, they are removed.

Performance cookies

These cookies help us to monitor and improve how our website works.

Common uses for this type of cookie include:

- collecting information about which pages visitors go to most often
- noting if visitors get any error messages from web pages
- understanding which links visitors like to follow (including advertisements) and which they choose not to.

The information collected using these cookies is anonymous and cannot be used to identify an individual visitor.

Functionality cookies

These cookies allow us to provide you with enhanced features that need to remember your preferences and choices, such as your user name, language or region. They also let us monitor how our website is performing so we can keep on improving it.

Common uses for this type of cookie include:

- providing you with local information, such as health providers in your area
- remembering how you like to use our site, such as what text size you like or what media software you use
- remembering what topics you are interested in so we can provide you with related products, services and information.

The information we store in these cookies is encrypted so that only we can read it.

Targeting and advertising cookies

These cookies are sometimes referred to as retargeting cookies and are placed by Foresters or by advertising networks that we may work with. These cookies remember that you have visited our site as well as what interested you on our site, such as the pages you viewed.

We use these cookies to ensure that the advertising and website content that we serve you, on our site or other websites is aligned to your browsing habits. For example, to remind you of the products or services you have shown an interest in. These cookies are also used to limit the number of times you may see an advertisement/content and to tailor the messaging we serve you. They may also be used for market research and to help measure the effectiveness of an advertising campaign.

Do Not Track Signals

Foresters does not track its customers or members over time in order to provide targeted advertising or for other purposes. Some browsers offer the capability to active a "Do Not Track" signal. We do not currently process or respond to "Do Not Track" signals from your browser. We and our third party service providers may collect personal information about our customers and members online activities.
